High School Summer Legal Institute

Summer Legal Institute:
July 11-15, 2011

Generously hosted by:
Seattle University School of Law

APPLICATION NOW AVAILABLE ON www.JTBF.org

Through the Summer Legal Institute, JTBF will engage, inspire, and instruct Seattle-area high school students, with the hope of piquing their interest in a career in the law and supporting them as they make their way through the pipeline to the legal profession.

Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, this program is FREE to students.

The Summer Legal Institute Scholars will study:

- Core Legal Concepts (structure of the American legal system)
- Legal Reasoning, Writing and Case Law Analysis
- Civil Rights, Immigration And Affirmative Action Issues
- Equal Protection Under the Constitution
- Ethical Considerations
- Negotiation Skills

In addition, students have the opportunity to:

- Meet and talk with diverse judges, lawyers, and others in the legal profession
- View proceedings in both state and federal court
- Prepare for and participate in a mock appellate argument involving the search and seizure of a student's backpack.

JTBF is a multi-racial, non-profit organization composed of lawyers, judges, and other citizens. It is dedicated to developing and nurturing interest in the law among young people from racial and other groups under-represented in the legal profession and supporting their continued advancement.

JTBF's long-term goal is to increase diversity in the legal profession and on the bench.
